LEADS

MIAMI

At Miami, Florida:

1. Will continue to follow activities of employees at Multiple Sports News Service in an attempt to prove violation of Federal gambling statutes.

2. Will report long distance calls for telephones utilized by Multiple Sports News Service.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The period of this report exceeds 60 days inasmuch as investigation from auxiliary office was not received prior to the submission of last report.

On August 11, 1965, Bureau authority was requested for installation of MUTT transmitter and mike concealed in [redacted] b7E Miami.

On August 13, 1965, the Bureau advised that the utilization of a nontrespass-type installation was not considered advisable at this time.

On August 2, 1965, the August publication of "Monthly Baseball Journal" published by Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS) was sent to the Bureau.

Also sent on this date was a copy of "Exhibition Football Schedule" published by MSNS.

These two publications were received by the Bureau on August 3, 1965, and added to the National Lottery File.

On August 2, 1965, Miami Division requested UACB permission to subscribe to "Football Journal" published by MSNS for a thirteen week period during the 1965 collegiate and professional season.

ALVIN WEISBERG advised on August 10, 1965, that he is still considering the possibility of complete cooperation and hopes he will not be required to repeat his statements.

WEISBERG has stated that he must decline to answer any questions which he may at a later date be asked before a Grand Jury or Senate Sub-Committee. He stated that his indebtedness to bookies and loan sharks in Miami makes it necessary he refuse to answer any questions or furnish any information which would be recorded and possibly required to repeat. He pointed out that in view of the fact he has "taken the 5th" on the same questions, there may be legal repercussions should he answer them for the record now, and be required to repeat the answers before the Grand Jury.

MM 165-346

ALVIN WEISBERG has furnished the Philadelphia Office little specific but some general information concerning gambling in Philadelphia area. This is confined to dice and card games. He is associated with numerous "common gamblers" in this area.

He is a nephew of PEARL MAYO, local madam, who has operated a house of prostitution in Philadelphia for more than 20 years. WEISBERG formerly "steered" her customers prior to 1957 and was fired by Yellow Cab for this activity. MAYO, who had been inactive for the past 90 days, re-opened August 14, 1965, and has requested WEISBERG's cooperation again.

WEISBERG is employed as a driver for Yellow Cab Company, Philadelphia.

[redacted] was contacted on [redacted] by SAs MARTIN STEPHEN EGAN and [redacted] and advised that [redacted]

MM 165-346

On [redacted] Western Union Telegraph Company, Miami, Florida, advised SA ELMER C. MULLEN that Miami is now the headquarter office for the state of Florida. Mr. [redacted] advised that at the present time there is little or no reason for the use of sports ticker service by anyone other than legitimate news media. Mr [redacted] advised that the reason for this is the fact that the news media, radio and television are able to furnish news and sports results either during the actual event or so shortly thereafter that there is little need for sports tickers by private subscribers. The time element is so short between the end of the event and the time the results are announced that the sports subscribers cannot compete with the local news and television services, and, further, the price of the service runs about $75 to $80 per month. Mr. [redacted] advised that in the past numerous bars, social clubs and private subscribers would use the sports ticker service as a matter of convenience to their customers. However, the competition is too great now and the call for such sports ticker service is practically nil.

Mr [redacted] advised that the only sports ticker subscriber which is not obviously a legitimate news and sports media in this area is the Multiple Sports and News Service, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami, Florida, which is operated by FRANK L. ROSENTHAL.

FORMER EMPLOYEE

ALVIN WEISBERG

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date July 15, 1965

ALVIN WEISBERG appeared at the Philadelphia Office and was interviewed at which time he stated that he is residing at 6510 Large Street (telephone PI 4-2974) and is employed as a driver for Yellow Cab Company out of the K and A barn. He works the 4 p.m. to 2 a.m. shift. He stated that he has heard nothing from Miami although he did observe a suspicious car in his neighborhood, this car having Florida plates. He said that the Buick owned by him is parked in front of his residence at night and at the cab barn during the day and that he is making no attempts to hide this automobile.

WEISBERG was asked if he could identify the following individuals at which time he stated that all of the names are familiar and that he definitely knew the names to be familiar as customers of Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, and are all known as "handicappers." He said he does not know any of the individuals personally with the exception of [redacted] whom he says he has never seen, but knows him from general reputation in the Philadelphia area. He said he recalls the names; however, the addresses are not recalled, but they could be right. The following names were identified:

of [redacted] from the Philadelphia area [redacted]

[redacted]

He said all of those listed above to the best of his recollection are customers of the Multiple Sports News Service and wishing various sports events schedules. He gave for an example that for 75 cents per copy Multiple Sports Service will mail the baseball schedule for the American and National Leagues for any particular month. These schedules are a long sheet, boxed for innings for baseball, and quarters for football and basketball. No line information is contained in these schedules. He said to the best of his knowledge this type of schedule is legal in every respect and can be placed in the mail. He said he recognizes most of the above names as customers of Multiple Sports News Service in nothing other than sporting event schedules. He said he does not know [redacted] of Florida personally, but feels he is definitely a schedule customer.

WEISBERG stated he has never been arrested in the City of Philadelphia; however, he described himself as a gambling degenerate. He said he was arrested on a farm near Dover, Del, at the age of 21 along with approximately 100 other gamblers. He said he is familizr with most of the common gamblers in Philadelphia, particularly those who frequent the H and H at the Reading Railroad Station in Philadelphia. He said he knows most of them by nickname and usually follows that crowd for a game of cards or dice.

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date August 16, 1965

ALVIN WEISBERG of 6510 Large Street appeared at the Philadelphia Office on August 10, 1965. SA JOHN C. MURRAY again advised him that he need not make a statement and that any statement he may make may be used against him in a court of law. He was also reminded that he appeared voluntarily.

WEISBERG again referred to his previous employment in Miami, Fla., from 1957 to April 1965, during which he worked for FRANK "Lefty" ROSENTHAL and STANLEY GREEN. ROSENTHAL and GREEN were during this period and still are operating the MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE (MSNS).

WEISBERG again insisted that he was employed only in a clerical capacity. He stated that while so employed his duties were as follows:

He arrived at the office in the morning. The current "line" was typed and on his telephone table. He accepted phone calls all day, particularily busy through 2 p.m. The callers, all customers, would make one or more of the following requests: (1) line information concerning coming sports events; (2) sports schedule information; (3) inning scores for baseball of up-to-date scores on other sporting events.

WEISBERG stated that the customers also vary in the information desired. $50.00 per week ($40.00 for some reason unknown) entitled the caller the complete "line" on coming events such as the odds on a football game, pitchers and odds on baseball games, etc.; $10.00 per week entitled the caller to inning by inning scores (or quarters in football games). Some callers such as handicappers request cards which set out the coming football games with box score space. The same cards were available for other sports. This service was also paid for in advance but the amount varied. Much of the card service was handled by mail.

WEISBERG further stated that ROSENTHAL and/or GREEN handled all "line" information and gave him only what he would need to service the customers. He insisted that he does not know the origin of the information.

WEISBERG stated that he knows GIL BECKLEY of Miami as GIL, an associate of ROSENTHAL; however, the exact nature of this association is unknown to WEISBERG. He said that he never heard the name of SOL GERSHENHORN; however, he was aware of the fact that SOL GREEN formerly operated some manner of publishing "line" information on the west coast prior to his death about two years ago. He said that he did not know him personally but heard enough of him to know what business he operated.

He stated that in his capacity as clerk of MSNS he heard the name ANGEL-KAPLAN more than any other as a source of "line" type information in the past, but from all indications this name is used less frequentlyy at MSNS. He said he knows of WILLIAM KAPLAN, however, can never recall meeting him personally. He said that ROSENTHAL apparently is closely associated with him and the sport news service; however, the nature of this association is not known to WEISBERG. He said that ROSENTHAL refers to KAPLAN often in the MSNS office.

WEISBERG again stated that he would decline to identify customers of MSNS by their code number, name or otherwise as he has previously refused before a Senate Sub-Committee. He said that he will likewise decline to identify out-of-state customers of MSNS. He also declined to identify any Miami "bookies", gamblers or loan sharks.

Review of this case indicates that it has excellent potential for prosecution, particularly on basis of information [redacted] You should immediately conduct intensive investigation so that this matter can be developed into a prosecutable violation. In this regard, arrangements should be made with logical sources to obtain records of long distance telephone calls emanating from Multiple Sports News Service, Frank Rosenthal and others associated with Multiple Sports News Service and thereafter identify subscribers of numbers called and attempt to determine whether or not these individuals are known gamblers. b6 b7C b7D Imagination, ingenuity and logical investigative techniques must be employed so that admissible evidence can be developed. Adequate manpower must be assigned to this investigation to bring the matter to a successful conclusion at the earliest possible date.

Miami should submit a weekly airtel summarizing developments in this matter, such airtel to reach the Bureau on Monday of each week, beginning 10/11/65.

Re Buairtel to Miami dated 10/15/65, Miami airtel to Bureau dated 10/15/65 and Bureau radiogram to Miami dated 10/15/65.

On October 14, 1965, a conference was held at the FBI Office, Miami, with Departmental Attorneys [redacted] re captioned case. The concurrent opinion developed at this conference was that captioned case has excellent prosecutive potential.

Departmental Attorney [redacted] reflected that the following steps in his opinion, should be taken to bring about the final objective of prosecution:

(1) Closely coordinated investigation with Chicago and Los Angeles Divisions who respectively are investigating ANGEL KAPLAN and J.K.'s Sports Journal.

3 - Bureau

EX-100

66 OCT 22 1965

Prior investigation reflects that the above two "services" call captioned service daily, usually between the hours of 9:30 to 10:00 a.m. for "line" information. It is imperative to determine where the calls are placed in Chicago and Los Angeles and what code numbers are now being used by the two "services" in obtaining information from Multiple Sports News Service.

(2) Investigation by Boston Division regarding the operation of ELLIOT PAUL PRICE. It is necessary to determine the method of charging long distance calls from the Boston area to Multiple Sports News Service.

Prior investigation reflects that PRICE's bookmaking office calls Multiple Sports News Service daily during the morning hours and previously have used a Canadian credit card to place their calls.

(3) Investigation by Baltimore Division re the bookmaking operation of [redacted] b6 b7C

Prior investigation reflected that an employee of Multiple Sports News Service would call the above named bookmaker during the morning hours with the baseball "line" information. Investigation conducted in the Miami Division since the release of [redacted] as an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, has been negative in establishing calls from Miami to Randallstown, Md., the place of above named bookmaking operation.

(4) Departmental Attorney [redacted] is going to get an opinion from the Department re possibility of cooperation of Postal Inspectors in Miami.

Investigation to date reflects that SAM GREEN will mail the "Weekly Football Schedule" on Saturday or Sunday evening at the Little River Post Office.

Cooperation with Postal Inspectors, Miami, would substantiate the fact that envelopes are being sent in interstate commerce to various parts of the U. S. if they could observe the addresses on envelopes sent by Multiple Sports News Service.

(5) Consideration given to cooperation with Internal Revenue Service re the operation of ELLIOT PRICE and [redacted] since none of these individuals have Federal wagering tax stamps.

[redacted] (6) Observation by New York Agents of [redacted] receiving sheets at the Warwick Hotel, NYC. b6 b7C

Prior investigation reflects that [redacted] is running a bookmaking operation for CHARLES TOURINE and was picking up the sheets at the above described hotel.

Departmental Attorney [redacted] was desirous of obtaining up-to-date investigative material re Multiple Sports News Service.

// UACB, Miami will submit a summary report of Multiple Sports News Service to reach the Bureau by October 25, 1965.

RE: MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE

(00: Miami)

Re Miami airtel to the Bureau, 10/16/65.

On 10/21/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, sports consultant of captioned "Service", was contacted on a pretext interview.

He stated that the "Service" opened the FSU vs. Baylor game played 10/2/65 at 4 and game moved to 3 in favor of FSU. He could not understand any oddsmaker making the Baylor game a favorite by 3 to 4 points.

ROSENTHAL further stated that the point spread in Detroit vs. Washington Redskins professional football game played on 10/3/65 opened at 7 in favor of Detroit and closed at 5½. He commented that PLUM, considered a mediocre Q.B., did in fact call some unusual plays in the forth quarter of play.

ROSENTHAL states that the "Service" was contemplating the installation of an Associate Press sports ticker which runs for 20 hours a day. Reason for this ticker would be to increase coverage of sports info to customers. ROSENTHAL said it was impossible to keep abreast of all player info through newspapers.

To date, ROSENTHAL indicated that AP has not given an O.K. on obtaining the ticker. ROSENTHAL wanted an opinion from the FBI concerning this AP ticker. He was referred to the USA's Office, Miami.

By communication dated October 15, 1965, the Bureau advised that they should be kept advised by most appropriate means of developments regarding investigation and prosecutive action in the case captioned Multiple Sports News Service. The Bureau advised that any press release should be coordinated with Crime Records Division. b6 b7C

On October 14, 1965, a conference was held at the Miami FBI Office with Departmental Attorneys [redacted] The opinion jointly expressed by these attorneys was that captioned case has excellent prosecutive potential.

Departmental Attorney [redacted] outlined the following steps that should be taken to reach the final objective of prosecution:

1.) Closely coordinated investigation with Chicago and Los Angeles Divisions who respectively are investigating ANGEL-KAPLAN and J. K.'s Sports Journal.

Prior investigation reflects that the above two "services" call captioned service daily, usually between the hours of 9:30 to 10:00 AM for "line" information. It is imperative to determine where the calls are placed in Chicago and Los Angeles and what code numbers are now being used by the two "services" in obtaining information from Multiple Sports News Service.

2.) Investigation by Boston Division regarding the operation of ELLIOT PAUL PRICE. It is necessary to determine the method of charging long distance calls from the Boston area to Multiple Sports News Service.

Prior investigation reflects that PRICE's bookmaking office calls Multiple Sports News Service daily during the morning hours and previously have used a Canadian credit card to place their calls.

3.) Investigation by Baltimore Division regarding the bookmaking operation of [redacted] and [redacted]

Prior investigation reflected that an employee of Multiple Sports News Service would call the above named bookmaker during the morning hours with the baseball "line" information. Investigation conducted in the Miami Division since the release of [redacted] Multiple Sports News Service, has been negative in establishing calls from Miami to Randallstown, Maryland, the place of above named bookmaking operation. b6 b7C

4.) Departmental Attorney [redacted] is going to get an opinion from the Department regarding the possibility of cooperation of Postal Inspectors in Miami.

Investigation to date reflects that SAM GREEN will mail the "Weekly Football Schedule" on Saturday or Sunday evening at the Little River Post Office.

Cooperation with Postal Inspectors, Miami, would substantiate the fact that envelopes are being sent in interstate commerce to various parts of the United States if they could observe the addresses on envelopes sent by Multiple Sports News Service.

5.) Consideration given to cooperation with Internal Revenue Service regarding the operation of ELLIOT PRICE and [redacted] and [redacted] since none of these individuals have Federal wagering tax stamps.

6.) Observation by New York Agents of [redacted] receiving sheets at the Warwick Hotel, New York City.

Prior investigation reflects that [redacted] is running a bookmaking operation for CHARLES TOURINE and was picking up the sheets at the above described hotel. b6 b7C

The Detroit Division advised that it was ascertained that [redacted] has an unpublished telephone number in his apartment, located at [redacted] Michigan.

On August 18, 1965, SE [redacted] reviewed the files of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, Los Angeles, and determined that the number [redacted] is a non-published number listed to [redacted] California.

Files of the Los Angeles Office reflect that [redacted] is the [redacted] of J & K Sports Service, Los Angeles. This telephone number is a new number for [redacted]

The Detroit Office indices are negative regarding [redacted]

MM 165-346

On November 2, 1965, Departmental Attorney [redacted] telephonically advised that he would be in Miami on November 8, 1965 for a consultation regarding captioned case. He noted that due to this visit, a summary report regarding Multiple Sports News Service would not be necessary at this time.

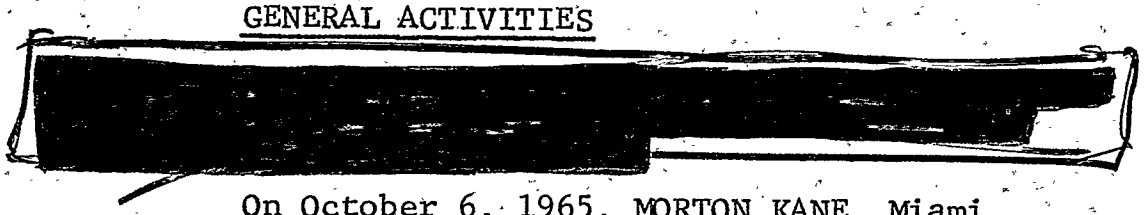
GENERAL ACTIVITIES



On October 6, 1965, MORTON KANE, Miami bookmaker was observed in the company of FRANK ROSENTHAL at the business address of Multiple Sports News Service.

Spot checks made during the 1965 World Seriew failed to reflect any employee of Multiple Sports News Service utilizing pay telephone booths.

On October 21, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL was contacted on a pretext interview. ROSENTHAL stated that the "Service" gave out an opening line for the Florida State University versus Baylor University football game played on October 2, 1965, favoring FSU by four points. The last "line" change moved to three points favoring FSU. He could not understand any odds-maker making Baylor University a three or four point favorite.

ROSENTHAL reflected that the "Service" gave an opening line of Detroit being a seven point favorite in a game played against the Washington Redskins on October 3, 1965. He commented that this game closed favoring Detroit by 5½ points.

ROSENTHAL commented that MILT PLUM is considered in the trade as a very mediocre quarterback and it was his opinion that PLUM did call some very unusual plays in the fourth quarter of the game.

ROSENTHAL stated that Multiple Sports News Service was contemplating the installation of an Associated Press sports ticker which runs for a twenty hour period of time daily. The reason for this ticker, according to ROSENTHAL, would be to increase the coverage of their sports information for the customers. He indicated that it was impossible to keep abreast of all player and team information through the newspapers.

He further stated that by expanding their coverage there will be less fluctuation in the line between cities in the United States. ROSENTHAL blamed in part the National Football League for not divulging injuries to the public as this in itself tends to make the "line" fluctuate.

mailed weekly and baseball schedules monthly by Multiple. He said he has not subscribed to receive basketball schedules but understands they are published weekly by this firm. He said the schedules only list teams and starting times of games and do not contain any "line information". He said Multiple charges about twenty five cents a sheet (schedule) and during the last football season he received about 25 sheets each week. He said he personally paid the charges of about $62 for the football season while in Miami, Florida, last year. He related he distributes these sheets to persons in Jacksonville who place bets with him.

He claimed he no longer subscribes to this service as he has friends in Miami who mailed him a schedule which they have obtained from Multiple and that this football season he may have a small number of copies of these schedules memographed for his customers.

He said he does not know of anyone else in the Jacksonville, Florida, area who has been receiving service from Multiple Sports Service.

An inquiry was made of FINNEY regarding one [redacted] who may be a customer of Multiple, however, he does not know of anyone who may be using this name.

Regarding a person known as [redacted] FINNEY identified this person as [redacted] (Phonetic) who resides in Orlando, Florida. He said [redacted] which, according to FINNEY, is the largest chain in the State of Florida, and has headquarters in Orlando, Florida. He said he understands that up until about two years ago, this person had been placing football bets with unknown persons in Miami, Florida, but that [redacted] quit placing bets with them as he was interviewed by the FBI regarding these Miami persons who were under investigation. He said he has never met [redacted] and that someone referred this person to him and that since that time he has been a regular football bettor. He said [redacted] is a very good customer and that he has never met him. All his bets have been placed by telephone. He said that when this person calls he always says this is [redacted]

He said he has heard of [redacted] also known as [redacted] Florida, but that he has never done any business with this person.

He related he does not have any other sports book betting customers outside of Jacksonville, Florida area. He advised that a couple of years ago he did have a person whose name he cannot now recall who resided in Eustis, Florida, and this person placed personal football bets with him.

Regarding [redacted] of Jacksonville, Florida, FINNEY indicated that he traded some football bets with this person during the past season. FINNEY emphasized that the bulk of his sports book business are personal bets placed by legitimate Jacksonville businessmen.

He stated that betting on baseball games during the past season has been very slow. He said he is presently taking bets on the exhibition football games and that as soon as the regular season starts, he will commence taking bets on the professional and college games. He related that the bulk of his bets are received on games which are televised.

ABRAHAM GEVIRTZ was advised by Special Agent ROBERT W. KENNEDY that he did not have to say anything, that anything he said could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney.

Mr. GEVIRTZ advised that he is 76 years of age and is the builder and owner of the 36 story office building at 1400 Broadway. He explained that this building leases space to manufacturers of women's dresses. He said that all segments of this industry are represented in the building so that trade buyers can contact manufacturers in one location. He said that the building was constructed about 35 years ago and since it is in the center of the garment district, over the years, he has seen and met such notorious persons as "LEPKE," RED REED, MAX COURTNEY, CHARLIE BROAD. He added, however, that although he has met these people, he has never associated with them.

He said that he enjoys betting on all sporting events except horse racing. He said that he does not recall ever having subscribed to "Multiple Sports News Service" but has bought similar publications at newsstands. He said that he is not a person in the betting business but merely bets occasionally as a form of enjoyment. He stated that in spite of the fact that he may be well off financially, he is not a "rich bettor" and never bets more than $50.00 at a time. b6 b7C

He said that he spends every winter in Miami, Florida. He denied winning money from Miami bookmakers during the last season and denied knowing a Miami bookmaker named [redacted]

He added that he spends every summer in Europe and had to shorten his European vacation this year because his wife, who is 73 years old, had a heart attack from which she has since recovered.

Mr. Hoover's Crime-Finders

WE WOULD guess that J. Edgar Hoover finally got tired of hearing local law enforcement officers say there is no organized crime in Greater Miami.

That would account for announcement from Washington by the FBI director himself that five men had been arrested in two coordinated raids in Dade County aimed at knocking out a big-time gambling syndicate. It was no surprise that city, county or state law officers did not take part in the raids.

How could they when Miami Police Chief Headly and Dade Sheriff Buchanan have been saying for two months that The Herald's stories on organized crime and vice are nothing but hot air and too vague to mean much?

Why would the FBI confide in and cooperate with the Miami police chief who says bolita is a small-time operation and that he doesn't know of any bolita counting houses?

Why would the FBI work with the Dade sheriff who says he never heard of the gambling syndicate's boss man in South Florida and that The Herald's series on crime is politically inspired?

Sheriff Buchanan has complained that the Grand Jury should have indicted him instead of only being critical of law enforcement. If the sheriff is looking for an indictment, he can find it in the fact that the Federal Bureau of Investigation did not include him in the weekend massive crackdown on organized gambling.

It would be interesting to discover if Chief Headley and Sheriff Buchanan will now make an official protest to FBI Director Hoover. It would be interesting to know if Miami Mayor High will continue to regard the local crime situation as "anti-social behavior" that can be corrected by asking Washington for money.

Still unanswered is the serious question posed by the Grand Jury: "It is evident that the police can not or care not to enforce the law. One can only conclude from this that they are either incompetent, corruptible or indifferent to their responsibilities."

If Chief Headley and Sheriff Buchanan believe this editorial is politically inspired, they are correct. It is inspired by the thought that Miami and Dade politicians are not worried when FBI men uncover crime that local police officials say does not exist.

Before Moving to 'Attic Retreat'

House of Bookie on Probation Used as Prokos' Headquarters

By KARL WICKSTROM
Herald Staff Writer

A bookmaker who is on probation from an arrest by sheriff's lawmen provided the house used recently as temporary headquarters for syndicate gambler John Prokos.

Prokos ran his large gambling operation from the unoccupied residence at 320 NW 73rd Ave. for nearly a month before moving into a manufacturing plant that was raided Sunday by the FBI.

Public records show that the temporary location is owned by bookie Roy Billingsley Lee, 54, serving three years probation on a conviction Oct. 23, 1964.

Lee also was arrested June 30 of this year by sheriff's and state attorney general's agents on charges of taking bets from a Southwest section bar. This case is pending in Criminal Court.

Prokos moved out of the 73rd Street residence when his elaborate attic in the plant about a half-mile south of Medley was ready three weeks ago, according to investigators.

U.S. Commissioner Edward P. Swan Monday postponed preliminary hearings stemming from Sunday's federal raids after District Attorney William Meadows informed him that the prosecutor and key FBI agent on the cases are tied up in another trial.

Their Hearings Postponed

... Sam Green, Lefty Rosenthal

Five defendants arrested in coordinated raids which were announced by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover are charged with interstate dissemination of gambling information.

Sam S. Green, 52, and Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal, 36, of Multiple Sports News Service, face a hearing at 2:30 p.m. Dec. 8.

Prokos, 42, his brother Chris Prokos, 40, and Billy Levitt come up for a separate preliminary hearing at 2:30 p.m. Dec. 9.

The Prokos group was apprehended at 7695 NW 63rd St. where investigators said they accepted telephone bets from an ingeniously concealed room on a loft inside United Chemical Co. The company's owner, Layton Gay, could not be reached for comment.

FBI Nets 5 In Game Odds Raid

By HAINES COLBERT
Reporter of The Miami News

Five Miami men were charged with violation of federal gambling laws today after being seized in a raid by FBI agents.

The FBI said four of the men were operating a nationwide service that provides gamblers with odds on football games. The fifth was identified as a customer.

Charged with interstate transmission of gambling information through Multiple Sports News Service Inc. were:

Sam Green, 52, of 7851 NE 10th Ct., president of the company; Frank Rosenthal, 36, of 2123 NE 122nd St., a consultant, and Chris Prokos, 40, of 7340 SW 68th Ave., and Billy Levitt, 1450 NW 194th St., listed as employes.

Prokos' brother, John Prokos, 42, of 1825 S. Miami Ave., was accused of being a client of the service and was held on the same charge as the others.

All five were released in $2,500 bond pending a hearing later today before U.S. Commissioner Edward Swan.

The agents hid under the tarpaulin of a boat on a trailer near the Palmetto Expressway until they saw the Prokos brothers and Levitt go into the bet service headquarters.

It was set up behind a concealed door on the second floor of a chemical company plant at 7695 NW 63rd St.

Green was arrested at his office at 1090 NE 79th St. and Rosenthal was picked up at his home.

Affidavits filed by the federal agents said Multiple Sports supplies bookmakers with the favorite in a football game and the number of points by which it is expected it to win.

The FBI agents, answering calls at the chemical plant office after the raid yesterday, said bookies from around the nation were calling for information about the afternoon professional league games.

Business Flourished Since '63

By KARL WICKSTROM
Herald Staff Writer

The current "heat" on South Florida's syndicated hoodlums flushed gambler John Prokos out of a secure downtown Miami location and paved the way for Sunday's far-reaching raid by federal agents.

Public attention also has been focused on the Mafia-financed Multiple Sports News Service, a bookie service crippled in a second phase of the FBI's crackdown.

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover described Multiple Sports, of 1090 NE 79th St., as one of the nation's largest suppliers of wagering information.

The business was organized in early 1963 by convicted basketball fixer Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal (whose real name is Norman Louis Rosenthal). Part of a national syndicate, the service established odds, or point spreads, for bigtime sports gambling.

Prokos, a key subscriber to the service and a nationally known bookie kingpin, operated here for many years behind steel doors above his Athens Cafe at 221 NE Second St. Nearly two years ago he switched his telephone network to the nearby Langford Building, 121 SE First St.

The cafe remained a location for gamblers to pick up winnings or settle their losses.

Month after month the dual operation flourished without interference.

But on Sept. 20 a detailed account of the Prokos gambling operation was published in The Herald.

Days later, Prokos moved to seek a cooler atmosphere.

First he set up shop at 6440 Pembroke Rd., West Hollywood. Then on Oct. 18 he drifted back into Dade, taking bets from 320 NW 73rd Ave.

On Nov. 12, he began using his elaborate communication center that was raided Sunday by federal agents.

The secret federal probe was based on U.S. laws passed by Congress in 1961 to curb interstate racketeering after sports scandals rocked the nation.

The felony statutes prohibit distribution of wagering information or paraphernalia across state lines.

Gambling in itself is not a federal crime although it violates state and municipal laws.

Rosenthal, 36, was with his wife in their fashionable town house at 2123 NE 122 St. when FBI agents came for him with an arrest warrant.

Without fuss, he slipped into sports clothes, was whisked away to post bond, a procedure he knows well.

In October 1963 Rosenthal pleaded no contest to charges in Charlotte, N.C. that he fixed an NCAA basketball game, but escaped without a prison sentence or probation term. On another occasion, he was named a co-conspirator, but not indicted, in the fixing of 25 games involving 12 colleges from 1957-60.

Local lawmen raided his apartment Dec. 31, 1960, but no formal charges were ever filed.

Less fortunate last Tuesday, Rosenthal was sentenced in Metro Court to serve 10 days in county jail for driving with a suspended license. He's free on a $750 appeal bond.

At the Multiple Sports office, in Suite 112 of the modern Morton Building, Samuel Solomon Green was alone as agents scooped up boxes of records and placed him under arrest.

Green, also known as Stanley Green, 52, holds the title of president. He was once convicted of cheating on his GI Bill benefits and later was arrested but not convicted on charges of bookmaking, violating beverage laws and showing obscene movies.

An affidavit for the search warrant named some of the "line customers" of Multiple Sports: Joseph Amdursky, Norfolk, Va.; Nathan Miller, Washington, D.C.; Elliott Paul Price, Boston; John Doyle, Randallstown, Md.; Jerry (The Curtain) Zarowitz, Las Vegas, and Hershie Laff, Miami.

The federal raids caught gamblers at just about the worst time possible, when interest is building toward the football bowl games.

Many experts believe that New Year's Day, for instance, now outranks even the World Series as the biggest single attraction for illegal gambling.

FBI Raiders Seize Five In Gambling Crackdown

Hoover Announces Agent Operation; Records Grabbed

By HANK MESSICK
Herald Special Writer

In coordinated raids on a Medley chemical company and a 79th Street office building Sunday, the FBI struck a massive blow at organized gambling in South Florida and the nation.

Five men, including John (the Greek) Prokos and Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal, were arrested. A vast amount of records was seized.

The Miami raids were considered significant enough to be announced directly from Washington by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover. Hoover said the arrests climaxed an intensive investigation conducted in several states.

No local or state law enforcement officers took part.

Charged with interstate transportation and interstate transmission of gambling information were Prokos, 42, of 1825 S. Miami Ave.; his brother, Chris Prokos, 40, of 7340 SW 68th Ave.; Billy Levitt, 1450 NW 194th St.; Sam Green, 52, 7851 NE 10th Ct., and Rosenthal, 36, of 2123 NE 122nd St.

The charges carry possible maximum sentences of two years in prison plus a $10,000 fine.

All five posted $2,500 bond at the Dade County Jail and were released pending a preliminary hearing at 2:30 p.m. today before U.S. Commissioner Edward Swan.

Spitting, cursing and hurling fruit at newsmen and photographers, they left the jail several hours after their arrests.

The Prokos brothers and Levitt were arrested shortly after 10 a.m. as they arrived, individually, at a secret hideaway fashioned in a second story storage loft of an innocent looking chemical company at 7695 NW 63rd Street.

Agents had hidden under the tarpaulin covering a small boat parked on the Palmetto Bypass near the United Chemical Company plant.

Green was arrested at the office of Multiple Sports News Service, Inc., 1090 NE 79th St., at about the same time. He is listed as president. Rosenthal, consultant for Multiple Sports, was picked up a few minutes later at his home.

Agents at both the plant and at the Multiple Sports office said they were kept busy answering phone calls. Some bettors calling Prokos' hideaway hung up when they failed to recognize the answering voice. Others talked freely.

Agents said bookies from around the nation called Multiple Sports for the "line" — the current odds — on football games scheduled for Sunday afternoon.

Some expressed amazement at the information supplied them. Blandly, agents blamed unusual weather conditions.

Both Prokos and Rosenthal, who also uses the first name Frank, have been spotlighted in recent Miami Herald articles.

After a Sept. 20th article highlighted Prokos' long-time operation in the Langford Building in downtown Miami, the veteran gambler began searching for a new office.

He moved briefly to Broward County, operating at 6440 Pembroke Rd. in West Hollywood. When the World Series was over, he moved again to 320 NW 73rd Ave.

Meanwhile, new telephones were installed at the United Chemical Company plant. This was on Oct. 2. Certain remodeling was also begun. The work was still incomplete when Prokos moved in about mid-November.

The new Prokos' headquarters is at the end of a dirt road that dead-ends at the Palmetto Bypass. The two story concrete block building that bears the United Chemical Company name is surrounded by a huge steel fence that bars the entrance.

The property is leased in the name of Lawton A. Gay, whose home address is listed as 5831 W. 10th Ave., Hialeah.

The plant consists of two buildings, connected by a driveway littered with oil tanks and pieces of machinery.

An outside staircase at the first building leads to a three bedroom apartment still under construction. The bedrooms are all equipped with telephones. There is a large kitchen but no bathroom.

Across a tiny hall is a one-bedroom apartment. A rumpled bed and closet full of clothes indicated recent use.

It was the second building that interested federal agents. There a metal ladder led to a loft piled high with plywood and carpentry tools.

In a recently completed wall agents found a secret door that opened upward. It led them to a large room containing desks, three telephones, a refrigerator, a couch, a bathroom. There was a large wastebasket containing ashes agents said were burned records.

On one of the desks was a small bottle of pills. The telephone lines serving the hidden office had been spliced onto the main lines serving the building and fed through a conduit that carried electric power lines to the rear of the building.

It was from this room, agents said, that Prokos, his brother and clerk Billy Levitt conducted one of the largest handbooking businesses in South Florida.

The raids went off exactly as planned.

Special agents of the FBI drove a car pulling a boat to the side of the Palmetto Expressway near the plant. Five men were in the boat under a tarpaulin. Two other agents got out of the car and stationed the motor until John Prokos arrived at United Chemical.

Then all seven agents arrested him and occupied the building until Chris Prokos and Levitt arrived.

Green was found by still

Sam Green

other special agents in Room 112 of the 79th Street building that houses Multiple Sports.

When Rosenthal didn't appear, all records of Multiple Sports were seized.

Prokos was identified in the affidavit upon which the FBI obtained search warrants as a customer of Multiple Sports. Other customers so identified were from as far away as Boston and Las Vegas.

If the records seized Sunday supply the proof special agents were seeking, major bookmakers from coast to coast may have the choice of testifying before federal grand juries or going to prison for contempt.

FBI Raids Net Five Men Charged With Gambling

By FRANK MURRAY
Sun-Tattler Staff Writer

MIAMI — Five men, including a man who did business until last month from a Hollywood storefront and convicted basketball fixer Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal, face a federal hearing this afternoon on interstate gambling rackets charges.

All five were grabbed during FBI raids yesterday.

Charged with interstate transportation and interstate transmission of gambling information are John Prokos, 42, who had operated until mid-October from a rented storefront at 6440 Pembroke Rd.; his brother, Chris, 40; Stanley Green, 52, and Frank Rosenthal, 36.

SPITTING, cursing and throwing fruit at photographers, the quintet was released on $2,500 bond each from Dade County jail yesterday afternoon.

The building in Hollywood is owned by contractor Michael J. Cipoletto who said today, "I really don't know about this."

He said the building had been rented in November, 1964, to Dade - Broward Music Co. A tenant of the adjacent building handled the transaction for him, Cipoletto said.

"She was questioned by the FBI about the tenants," Cipoletto said.

"There was only a telephone and a desk in there. We found out they had moved when we went to get the October rent and they were'nt there any more," he added.

THE PROKOS brothers and Levitt were arrested in Dade at a newly - contructed attic bookmaking den whose only entrance was a ladder and a secret swinging door.

Green was arrested at the office of Multiple Sports News Service and Rosenthal was nabbed at home.

The FBI described Multiple Sports as one of the largest suppliers of sports information in the United States.

Rosenthal was convicted in South Carolina in 1963 on charges of fixing the outcome of college basketball games. He paid a $6,000 fine.

Shortly after 11:00 a.m., November 28, 1965, the Miami Office telephonically advised that Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal and Sam Green had been arrested in connection with their operation of Multiple Sports News Service. Simultaneously, John "The Greek" Prokos, Chris Prokos and William "Billy" Levitt were arrested in connection with their bookmaking operations in Miami. All persons have been charged with violating the Interstate Transmission of Wagering Information Statute.

Multiple Sports News Service provides sports information, including handicapping, or "line" information for professional baseball, basketball, football, hocky and college basketball and football. Recent information indicates that "line" information on these sports is distributed nationally by Multiple Sports News Service. Sam Green is listed as President of Multiple Sports News Service, although he holds this position in name only. This organization is actually headed by Rosenthal, well-known handicapper and sports consultant.

John Prokos, along with his brother, Chris Prokos and Levitt, have had one of the largest bookmaking operations in the Miami area. This operation has nation-wide significance with accounts from all over the country.

Immediately after the arrest of above-named persons, a national press release was made to United Press International and Associated Press by Crime Records Division. A press release was made simultaneously by the Miami Office.

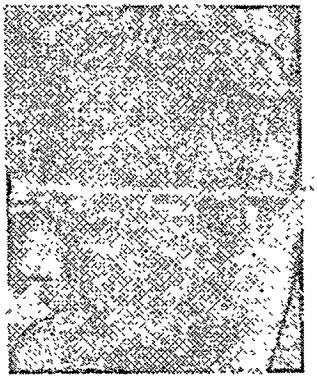
All five were released in $2,500 bond pending a hearing later today before U.S. Commissioner Edward Swan.



FRANK ROSENTHAL

The agents hid under the tarpaulin of a boat on a trailer near the Palmetto Expressway until they saw the Prokos brothers and Levitt go into the bet service headquarters.

It was set up behind a concealed door on the second floor of a chemical company plant at 7695 NW 63rd St.

Green was arrested at his office at 1090 NE 79th St. and Rosenthal was picked up at his home.

Affidavits filed by the federal agents said Multiple Sports supplies bookmakers with the favorite in a football game and the number of points by which it is expected it to win.

The FBI agents, answering calls at the chemical plant office after the raid yesterday, said bookies from around the nation were calling for information about the afternoon professional league games.

SPECIAL REPORT
written by
Frank L. Rosenthal

On Friday, November 19th, the Miami Herald began its initial feature story titled "Mobsters Muscle In On World Of Sports". Written by Herald Staff Writer Karl Wickstrom, the article, weakly and ineffectively discusses our organization, its policies, procedures, and general business structure. It continues by offering itself as an authority on the command of this organization, its financial supporters, its leadership, and subordinate members. Without exception this mighty and forceful newspaper continues to discuss the backgrounds of various local figures. Invariably the Miami Herald has in its sadistic tradition directed their attacks almost exclusively to either persons of Jewish or Italian extractions. If one would take a close up look at the policy makers behind this newspaper , one may easily detect the Anti-Semitic and Anti-Catholic projections of Publisher John S. Knight, and continuing down as low as the frustrated Karl Wickstrom. The average reader has little opportunity of ever personally encountering the rather abnormal personalities of the assorted group of writers employed by the Miami Herald. I personally have had the displeasure of first hand contact with the likes of Herald Staff writer Gene Miller, and other run of the mill copy boys, and I can in all honesty profess to the fact that without exception they offer a particular brand of repulsivness along with their natural characteristic of being sneaky, contemptible, and lacking the slighest degree of human compassion for those that they attempt to malign. Realizing that they thrive upon sensationalism, regardless as to its accuracy, the community is forced to accept the newspaper with little alternate choice. However, the average reader is slowly but forwardly becoming aware of the Miami Herald, its shortcomings, and blistering policy of personal attack directed to minority groups. Recently this Newspaper attempted to take charge of the Dade County Sheriffs Office, which obviously has taken exception to the mighty arm of the Herald. We do not believe that this Newspaper is honestly and sincerely dedicated to reporting the news directly and in an unbiased manner. It is the opinion of this writer that the Miami Herald, its Publisher, and editor Don Shoemaker have undertaken a scheme of trying to gain power control of the entire polotical mechanism of the various branches of government within Dade County to a degree beyond ones imagination. In the short time that has been available to us since becoming aware of Mr. Karl Wickstroms article we have briefly looked into this writers background. Certainly we do not claim to be able to describe Mr. Wickstrom as throughly as we would like to. It is quite possible that in the very near future we may give our readers a complete look into the life and background of the various Staff Writers employed by the Herald. For a start we have reason to believe that Mr. Karl Wickstroms sympathies have, on occasion, leaned in the direction of the American Nazi Party, and its leader George Lincoln Rockwell. We are not at all surprised that such could easily be the inner sentiments of this writer. You can be sure that we will have much more to say about the Herald and their writers. In the past we have refrained from editorializing in our publication due to the nature of our business which has previously been dedicated exclusively to the area of sports. However, we will continue to direct special attention to those individuals or groups that warrant our efforts. In spite of the Miami Herald we shall continue to administer our services with justifiable freedom, and without fear of reprisals.

Volume 4 GAMES FOR WEEK ENDING SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1965 Number 2

SPECIAL REPORT No. 2
BY — FRANK L. ROSENTHAL

PERSON TO PERSON WITH HERALD STAFF WRITER KARL WICKSTROM

It was easy enough to reach Mr. Wickstrom at his Miami Herald desk, however from that point on the writer obviously became indifferent, somewhat confused, and apparently bewildered when I proceeded to ask him a few basic questions in reference to his background. After having consulted with his editor for what seemed like 5 minutes he then gathered his composure and countered by firing away with questions of his own. I informed the young writer that I had no intentions at this time to either confirm or deny his story of November 19th. . . . He spoke very proudly of having been associated with the Miami Herald for the past 5 years. Originally he was assigned to their Broward office, and more recently was moved forward to the parent organization. Previously he had been employed by the Orlando Sentinel in a general capacity of sports and city news. "I'm 30 years of age said Wickstrom and I can't see what my family has to do with this." "Yes I'm married and have 4 children, and I don't think that your being very fair by dragging my family into this NAZI affair." "Why attack them; don't you have any sense of fair play asked the writer." "I have my own home in the South West section, and the exact location is of no concern to you or your column snapped the writer." (9930 SW 73rd St.) (Telephone Number 271-1926) Your set of rules Karl old buddy. . . . His voice became more relaxed when he spoke of his 6 year Air Force enlistment. "I was stationed at the McDill Air Force base in Tampa, Florida." "I started out as a private and terminated my enlistment as an Airman First Class." (From bench warmer to water boy in 6 years). After a few minutes of exchanged conversation Karl recalled that his dates were slightly in error. "I really only spent 6 months of active duty and 5½ years in the reserve." Pretty smart cookie our boy Karl. I informed Karl that his November 19th story resulted in quite a mixed reaction of public opinion. Our phones were kept quite busy with inquiries into "what's the line you guys" and various remarks that we have deemed unfit for publication. Another reaction came in the form of a personal visit from a young gentleman who appeared to be in his early thirties. His tone and general appearance suggested that he intended to offer genuine sincerity in respect to his forthcoming observations. "I prefer to remain anonymous, however I intend to offer you conclusive cooboration regarding Karl Wickstrom." After a few moments I interupted our visitor and inquired as to why he would want to expose Wickstrom as a "Staunch sympathizer to the basic concepts of the AMERICAN NAZI PARTY." I further asked him if his remarks could possibly be attributed or predicated on any previous grudge or misunderstanding. He strongly insisted that neither was the case, and continued by explaining that he among others were appalled that Americans possessing the most deplorable inner convictions are able to find there way into positions of public service, influence, and extreme responsibility. Our visitor further reminded me that the newspaper can on occasion become an awesome proverbial weapon, and it was his personal belief that the community could conceivably become the ultimate victims of misguided journalism. As owner Samuel Green and others sat by listening to our visitor we were all in complete accord that usually when smoke appears; your very apt to find fire. . . .
